MATTAPOISETT RESIDENTS TAKE PART IN PLAY

Sunday, December 10th, the Dever Auditorium of Westfield State College was well filled to view the Dramatic Club's presentation of a one-act play entitled "A Sign Unto You" by Jean Lee Latham.

Miss Gale Heuberger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Heuberger of Mechanic Street, Mattapoisett, played one of the leading roles in the presentation.

Miss Heuberger is a graduate of Fairhaven High School. She is now in her Junior year at Westfield State College where she is majoring in Elementary Education. In her sophomore year at Westfield, she participated in a one-act skit and in the college production of "South Pacific".

Diana H. Pierce, daughter of Morton A. Pierce of Prospect Road, Mattapoisett, a Junior at the college, portrayed the youngest daughter of a fashionable family of the suburbs of New York City. Diana attended Fairhaven High School and was graduated with honors in 1959.

The play was quite appropriate for the Christmas season and was the first play to be entirely student directed and produced at the

VOLUNTEERS OF AMERICA

The annual Christmas fund raising campaign of the Volunteers of America is now in progress and will continue until Christmas Eve. This national religious social welfare organziation puts the real spirit of Christmas into the season and deserves your support.

The Volunteers of America not only see to it that thousands of homeless, lonely and needy receive Christmas dinners and other holiday help, but every day throughout the year they conduct a program of aid for the less fortunate.

So when you pass those chimneys, remember to give to the Volunteers of America and help them to give the less fortunate a merrier Christmas and a happier year.
